Australian Spirits Selection

We are always looking to find the best produce of Australia. Our land has an abundance of native fruits and spice and we make some pretty good booze as well. The bar staff at Fraser's are always on the hunt for new and exciting spirits turning focus to Australian products. This section showcases some of the exciting things you may not expect from this vast land.

Aperitifs

Applewood Distillery

Producing experimental small batch spirits, Applewood have taken to producing aperitifs in vein of the Italian giants Aperol and Campari, the twist with these is the use of the native berries Lilli Pilli to produce an amazing naturally neon colored aperitif. Perfect to substitute into Spritz or Negroni.

Maidenii

Vermouth, the new black, is making waves across the land. Once seen as a medicine late in the 20th century it found fame in some classic cocktails which have stayed true to time. Maidenii took to the abundance of native trees herbs grown in Victoria and infused them with quality wine to make a vermouth that is suitable for any time of the day.

Spirits

West Winds

Gin is having the greatest impression with the Australian landscape as being somewhat a neutral spirit it needs a great amount of botanicals to give it a sense of place. West Winds hit the market in 2011 with The Sabre, a London Dry Gin, at 40% with toasted wattle seed and The Cutlass, the stronger 50% with kutjera (native bush tomato). Both were entered into the San Fran International spirits competition and both received gold.

Melbourne Gin Company

~~From the World's most liveable~~ Melbourne city comes its very own Melbourne Dry Gin. A classic gin with a twist of Melbourne, The Melbourne Gin Company is hand crafted, batch distilled and non chill filtered. Eleven botanicals, both local and exotic, are each individually extracted, distilled and then blended to create a well-rounded, smooth and slightly surprising gin.

Hippocampus

Relatively new to the scene Hippocampus has taken Perth by storm. Using only biodynamic wheat from the wheat belt in WA, Vodka, and more recently Gin, are the start of something special for this small independent distiller tucked away down an alley in West Perth.

Whipper Snapper

East Perth

Moonshine, true to the name. This recipe has been passed through generations of backyard distillers under lock and key. After making grain and corn whiskey for over 50 years in a garage, Whipper Snapper was born and are producing unique clear and barrel aged whiskeys. Learning to the American style with the expertise of an Irish whiskey distiller the first prototype of an 'Australian salute to Bourbon' was released.

Limeburners

Albany

Limeburners paved the way for many 'craft' distilleries popping up in WA. Beginning in 2003 with humble starts, this distillery has shown the world Whiskey doesn't have to come from Scotland. It can come from Albany! Now a mainstay in many venues Limeburners is on the way to becoming an iconic WA brand.

Four Pillars

Yarra Valley

Four Pillars Distillery was started with a clear purpose in mind. they wanted to elevate the craft of distilling in Australia. Their drive to create Four Pillars can be summed up as follows: We just love great drinks, we love cocktails, and we love craft.

Then followed years of research, test-distilling, importing and commissioning a bespoke copper pot still, filing forms with the government, sourcing the best botanicals from across Australia and around the world, and custom-making an amazing bottle to finally bring you Four Pillars Rare Dry Gin in December 2013.

Cargo Cult

Orange/PNG/Fiji

Not officially Australian we will still claim it. Sugar from PNG, water from Fiji and bottled in Australia it could be playing for the wallabies! A playful spiced rum, rich on mystery and intrigue the best of what the south pacific has to offer.

Seppeltsfield

Barossa Valley

Australian wine and spirit history would not be complete without a homage to Seppeltsfield. In the late 1800's the winery was born, slowly specializing in fortified, whether be the 'sherry' style or the 'port' style. International laws prohibit the use of the words but the styles remain strong with the flagship being 100yo para liqueur.
