Seppeltsfield

Seppeltsfield's history is punctuated with many moments of visionary foresight. Seppeltsfield's founder, Joseph Seppelt and his eldest son, Benno, were particularly renowned for their longer term vision for the estate, closely following custodianship principles to ensure a legacy was passed on to future generations.

This is no more evident than Benno Seppelt's inception of the Centennial Cellar - a truly unique and unparalleled system of maturing single barrels of vintage Tawny for 100 years before release. The first vintage, 1878, was released a century later in 1978 and every year since, a 100 year old Tawny has been released from the cellars of Seppeltsfield.
